

BACK TO ROUTINE? OR NOT.

/4 August, 2026

Going back to routine doesn't have to be boring. It's the perfect time to rediscover new styles in leisure settings that evoke fun, all infused with a nostalgic spirit. The collection embraces a casual, youthful and urban wardrobe, balancing sporty-inspired pieces with more feminine designs to create versatile looks that always stay on trend.

With khaki and bold red taking centre stage, the collection brings together relaxed yet characterful silhouettes. Raglan-sleeve T-shirts, cargo trousers, mini skirts, sporty-inspired pieces featuring collegiate typography, and tartan as the key print come together to create looks, that strike the perfect balance between functionality and fashion. Meanwhile, lingerie-inspired dresses with fluid silhouettes and lightweight fabrics add the collection's most feminine touch.

Accessories complete each look with a selection of structured mini bags, shopper bags, ballet flats, heeled mules and minimalist sandals. These pieces balance the sporty aesthetic with a more sophisticated approach. An invitation to relive favourite pastimes – whether it's an afternoon at the go-kart track or a game at the bowling alley – through versatile, retro-inspired fashion designed to accompany every plan.
