The new December collection arrives full of colour and warm pieces designed to brighten up the coldest days. Charlotte and Amelie reveal their favourite items of the month, opting for looks where blue and red take centre stage: knit sweaters —striped, dotted or textured— faux-fur coats, figure-hugging dresses in vibrant tones and, as a seasonal essential, plenty of denim.

The proposal plays with unexpected combinations that elevate any outfit: lingerie-inspired sarongs with sequin detailing, faux-fur hats, and accessories that bring shine and texture. The selection is completed with glossy and patent-finish bags and knee-high boots, adding the final touch to this story of shared style.
